Colonial Tea.

The Colonial Tea given by the U. D. C. at the Kentucky Home on the 21st was quite a success. There was a large crowd and the excellent musical program was thoroughly enjoyed.

The Music Class of Miss Powell gave a recital Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Wise on 6th avenue. The program was a good one and very much appreciated.

Miss Brownie Morris entertained a few of her friends at Auction bridge on Washington's birthday. Six rubbers of bridge were played the highest score was won by Miss Amy Edwards she received a lovely box of Martha Washington candy. Mrs. Barnwell was given the consolation, a tie rack, very appropriately in the shape of a hatchet. Delicious Florida strawberries and cake were served.

The Philathea Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church gave a Washington Birthday Party at the home of Mrs. Carmichael on 7th Ave. The young folks had a good time. Ice cream and cake were served.

J. M. Shepherd Dead.

J. M. Shepherd, an aged Confederate veteran, one of the city's best known citizens died here last Thursday. The deceased is survived by a wife and several children, among whom are M. M. Shepherd, Volney Shepherd and Thomas Shepherd of this place.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon. Hundreds of friends attended the funeral, among whom were delegations from the Watt Bryson Camp and the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mr. Shepherd enlisted in the service in 1861 as a private in Company G, 35th N. C. Infantry, P. J. Johnson, captain. His bravery and daring won for him an enviable record as a soldier. Since his surrender at Appomattox his loyalty and devotion to the "lost cause" amounted almost to a passion. For 20 years up to the time of his death, he was adjutant of the Watt Bryson Camp, at Hendersonville, and has never missed a reunion. The death of Mr. Shepherd has brought sorrow into a number of leading homes of the county where he was counted as a warm friend and true citizen. Mr. Shepherd leaves a record of being an upright Christian gentleman.
